

Fighters of the Century

Hysterica

We stand united on a mission here tonight
It's all about you. All about you
A world of hope
Immortal, unbreakable
Together we're strong

Feel the beating of your heart
You were born to be state of the art
Sky is the limit if you choose to believe it
Take a chance
You are

Fighters of the century
Open your hearts
Scream for me
Fighters of the century
Open your hearts scream for me
A sign of hope
One last show
Everybody's living the dream
The greatest thing you'll ever learn
Is just to love and be loved in return
So live it up all you warriors of rock
Keep the faith
You are
