

Tell Me Mirror

I Am Empire

Found myself a job singing for the Lord
Tell me mirror
Is this the way it works? Working hard for a penny at a time
Tell me mirror
If money cannot buy anything important in this life
May God come down to

Wash away, wash away
Start over
I always seem to be the last to know
Let me stay, let me stay
Roll over
I know the last will be the first to go

How can I pray and live my life this way
Tell me mirror
Who am I to judge such a wreck
Just look at me
Tell me mirror
Was I the same before God found me today
Carry out your plans

You will not regret giving up your time
Your pride
Your hundred dollar bills
You will not regret following a ghost
When the pearly gates are open wide
