

Saddest Story Never Told

I Am Ghost

Never a story told
The saddest thin I ever saw
Witnessed a murder
But too scared to make the last call
Look deep in her eyes
And I saw the beaut
(Waiting)
They came from the sky
Heard their music playing for us

We were lovers burned alive
And I am reborn
I will never forgive that night

Knocked on the door two times
I think I remember this voice
That wants me to forget I was there
She opens the door and says
"I'll help you"
(No regrets)
I dropped to my knees and I screamed
"Thank you!!"
Cause it's hard to believe

We were lovers burned alive
And I am reborn
I will never forgive that night

We were lovers burned alive
And I am reborn
I will never forgive that night

This is our lead
This is our sin

Can you remember?
Can you remember?
Can you remember?
Can you remember that night?

We were lovers burned alive
And I am reborn
I will never forgive that night (that night we died)

We were lovers burned alive
And we are reborn
I will never forgive that night
