

Mrs. Green

I Am The Avalanche

It's six a.m. in the Brooklyn zoo
And I may have had a drink or two
Mo's scraping me up off the floor
And I haven't packed a thing for tour

Whoaa Mrs. Green
Did I tell you, I'm falling back
I'm falling back on you again

Dad says he's in the hospital
And now he's been there for a week or two
Oh god only knows what I'd be without him
And if he truly knew everything about him
I'm sure he could find a way to keep him around

Whoaa Mrs. Green
Did I tell you I'm falling back
I'm falling back on you again

Whoaa Mrs. Green
Did you notice it's killing me
It's killing me dead

I'm singing this song right here for Beatz
I wish I could have told you everything about the talk we had Yeah about our lives and where we were
And you told me to keep my head up high
We miss you so much right now but I think we'll try
We'll try for you dear friend
