

This Town

I Call Fives

So let's rob a bank and live like kings
And then we'll run away
Forgetting all the things and all the people
We have grown to hate
And we'll move along
Singing songs we loved when we were young
Reminiscing about the times we shared
And then we sung

How we'll live forever
Cause you can't kill my dream
And I'll always remember
Drunken nights at seventeen
When we all fall down
And we all fall down
At least in this town

So leave it all behind
And pretend like we don't need it
We're listening to all their stories
Been there, done and seen it
We'll close our eyes, let out a sigh
As we try to convince ourselves
That home is where the heart is
That's never where you'll find us
Cause I sold my heart so many years ago
I doubt that it's still there
Why should I care

I'll live forever
Cause you can't kill my dreams
And I'll always remember
Drunken nights at seventeen
When we all fall down
Yeah, we all fall down
At least in this town

I'll learn to laugh
I'll lie to sing about how I fell in love
Or at least I thought so
And I pass the time
Knowing just one thing
This will never be enough for me
Never be enough for me

I'll live forever
Cause you can't kill my dreams
And I'll always remember
Drunken nights at seventeen
I'll live forever
Yeah, we all fall down
