

Violently Alive

I Hate Kate

I hate that you're there and I'm here
In the same room, miles from me to you
We're so distant, but close enough to touch
I hate that we talk, but only
All this chitter chatter, the weather doesn't matter
'Cause somewhere, we got lazy in love

It wasn't long ago you and I were like
Love twisters spinning in the sky
Violently alive
Every kiss felt like Fourth of July
Hearts shooting like bullets from a [?]
Violently alive
Violently alive

We'd steal a moment and lay there
On a rooftop in the rain, watching all the planes
And dream of where they'd take us one day
We'd make the sun rise, laughing all night
Even though we knew work was coming soon
Just one more kiss meant more to us than sleep

It wasn't long ago you and I were like
Love twisters spinning in the sky
Violently alive
Every kiss felt like Fourth of July
Hearts shooting like bullets from a [?]
Violently alive
Violently alive

It wasn't long ago you and I were like
Love twisters spinning in the sky
Violently alive

It wasn't long ago you and I were like
Love twisters spinning in the sky
Violently alive
Every kiss felt like Fourth of July
Hearts shooting like bullets from a [?]
Violently alive
Violently alive
