

Want, want, want, you

Stretching out before my eyes
Are litches who rule loud and wise
Regal shimmer, blinding shine
But law alone is belong whose says bye
All the shallow rifts I have to wade
This could've become my darkest hour
Enough are days of living in the shade

I see how to occlude
Is it underneath or on the vista?
Hide my land of frozen soil
That's why some despair through looking at mine

Can you follow me (want)
And I'll do if you (you) take my hand
This is all for you, (want)
Will you be there to (you)... To take that!

Improbable place unknown
Untouched and all undestroyed
Here I let my armies grow
Our voices will loudly crow
And I'm here at a deadly poor end
Never believed to cure the doubt
Want the world rushing in my veins

I see how to occlude
Is it underneath or on the vista?
Hide my land of frozen soil
What's why some despair through looking at mine

Can you follow me (want) and I'll do if you (you) take my hand
This is all for you (want), if you give and shy

Want, (lies) if you take me, (lies) hooo
Want, (lies) if want if, want, if you to take me, hoo if

Can you follow me through a second realm
Can you taste the pain what's howls against your tongue

I see how to occlude
Is it underneath or on the vista?
Hide my land of frozen soil
That's why some despair through looking at mine

Can you follow me (want) and I'll do if you (you) take my hand
This is all (want) for you, if you give and shy (will you be there to
...) to take that!
