Rupi's Dance

Ian Anderson

She dances through the flower-filled room - Sea-green eyes a-sparking.
Or are they blue? The message clear:
Seduce the master, winking.

Dainty feet circles inscribe Upon the frozen parquet. Arabesque in compound time: Stately Pavane or Bourée.

Sultry smile, come hither gaze - Black hair softly shining. Calls me up to half-lit bed. Sweet cloud with golden lining.

Oh, so young with ageless smile - Born of ungodly maker
Draws me: moth to candle bright - Fiery pleasure-seeker.

She dances through the flower-filled room - Sea-green eyes a-sparking.

It's Rupi's dance: the message clear.

Her movement does the talking.
