

Warrior

Icon for Hire

What's black and blue and bruised all over?
This beat heart, but it's not over
Lost my voice and my composure
Cut wide open, I need closure

I hit the ground, it doesn't phase me
'Cause I can see how strong it makes me

And I gotta say

I lost it all to win this fight
I didn't know what it'd be like
To be victorious
Damn it feels good to be a warrior
Remember who I used to be
I've come so far, still can't believe
It's like euphoria
Damn it feels good to be a warrior

What's left of me was all I needed
Take your shots, can't even feel them
Deep breath now, two brand new lungs
I almost can't believe how powerful I've become

I hit the ground, it doesn't phase me
'Cause I can see how strong it makes me

And I gotta say

I lost it all to win this fight
I didn't know what it'd be like
To be victorious
Damn it feels good to be a warrior
Remember who I used to be
I've come so far, still can't believe
It's like euphoria
Damn it feels good to be a warrior

Damn it feels good to be on top of the world
Spent too long at the bottom, it was all just a blur
I was waiting my turn 'til I ran out of patience
No one handed me my destiny, I just had to take it
Let myself forget myself, rewrite my whole identity
Do pretty much whatever my prefrontal cortex telling me
Now I'm rebuilding everything, hack into my chemistry
Party on the rooftop, now I run on solar energy

Damn it feels good to be a warrior, to be a warrior
Damn it feels good to be a warrior, to be a warrior

I lost it all to win this fight
I didn't know what it'd be like
To be victorious
Damn it feels good to be a warrior
Remember who I used to be
I've come so far, still can't believe
It's like euphoria

Damn it feels good to be a warrior
