

Floorkiller

Icon of Coil

Someone pretends to hold it back
Even they don't know that they gave their best
When they gave up other beliefs
When they're on the top

Even though they got more than much to give
Bit by snakes but I won't give it up

Come down, confront all my visions
Come down

Still I'm hunting the demons

I used to love to see the reflections
Of my shadows, now it seems like a threat
We need less as we swallow each other

Still I'm hunting the demons

Come down, confront all my visions
Come down

Can't wait for the signs to stop flashing in my head
Can't wait for the sounds to hold me back
How it felt through that time, I can't explain
But I hope you try to see seduce me, hold and caress me

Come down, confront all my visions
Come down
