

Better To Have Loved

Idina Menzel

Better To Have Loved:

Ooh

Better To Have Loved...

Ooh

If the sun went down tomorrow and it never came back

And the city went quiet and we fade to black

Well I won't have a single regret

And I wouldn't trade a thing

Cause I never knew I could feel what I feel inside of me

Better to have loved than never loved at all

Better to have dreamed than never taken the fall

Better to have loved you and let you in than never to have touched your skin

Better to have hurt and screamed and cried

Fall into the earth for a trip to the sky

Better to have loved

You

Better to have Loved:

I knew all the time I was taking a chance

When I stand there on the edge of the cliff and no one was holding my hand

Well the wind blew strong and the clouds rolled in and I, I felt us lift off the ground

Yes I bared my soul and I dared to go knowing one day you might let me down

Better to have loved than never loved at all

Better to have dreamed than never taken the fall

Better to have loved you and let you in than never to have touched your skin

Better to have hurt and screamed and cried

Fall into the earth for a trip to the sky

Better to have loved

You

I gave you everything but to have said goodbye

Better to have loved than never loved at all

Better to have dreamed than never taken the fall

Better to have loved you and let you in than never to have touched your skin

Better to have hurt and screamed and cried

Fall into the earth for a trip to the sky

Better to have loved, better to have loved

You
