

Shoeshine Girl

Iggy Pop

One day as I was walking
Through an airport corridor
I saw a comely goth girl
With tattoos on her form
She gazed up with her pretty white face
And shone her eyes on me
She shined my shoes and then I knew
That I would spellbound be

Her hair was not the shiniest
Her skin was not like silk
But she had a way of looking
That made me want to milk
As I sat high above her
Her cleavage I could see
I contemplated both of them
That's how she spellbound me

She wore black on her clothing
And she wore black on her boots
It was Lollapalooza day
But she didn't like the groups
I got lost in her pale skin
And wanted to stay down
But I had someone waiting
So I left spellbound

So if you're dark and lovely
And you see me passing by
A smile I'd appreciate
And a little bit of crime
I haven't got a dollar
And I haven't got a crown
I wander lost across this earth
I'm just spellbound
