

Angels Descend

Ignitor

(Queen Illia)

She said,
"Congratulations on your victory
You did so very well
Impressive for your first engagement
In battle skills you quite excel"

She was thinking while he was winning
He had something more at stake
Even when the blood was spilling
There was something
That he couldn't shake

Have you thought about
What's in store for you?
Have you thought about
What she's going through?
You got the power
To win the contest
Do you have talents
To win a princess?

Hey, hey, never say never
You want it you got it
In love forever

Hey, hey, angels descend now
You want it baby
Just take her hand now

She said,
"Oh Helmut, you're a charmer
You posses a lot of skill"
She's got a thing for guys in armor
And he truly fits the bill

Have you thought about
What's in store for you?
Have you thought about
What she's going through?
She's got a throne
She's got no babies
We hope your skills have
A way with ladies

Hey, hey, never say never
You want it you got it
In love forever

Hey, hey, wedding bells ring now
Don't blow it baby
You could be King now

Hey, hey, this is your big chance
Let's get it on now
It's time for romance

It's time to decide Helmut
What's it going to be?
Go to her castle, Helmut
And play King to be
