

Evil Calling

Ignitor

(Herzig)

Evil calling
Spiders crawling
Demons hiding
Witches lying
Doom won't rest
In dark infest
Devil's dawning

Nightmares come to those who wait
Unseen horror near
Darkness falls to desecrate
Shadows creep with fear
Powers that be refuse to see
Turning a blind eye
Hopeless peasants beg for help
As sons and daughters die

Monsters come, quake with fear
Pray for dawn, doom is near

Light is failing, fear unveiling
Blackness spreading
Praying, dreading

Evil hungers out of sight
Waiting patiently
Screams ring out in dead of night
Nothing to be seen
When dawn comes no bodies found
Only blood splatters upon the ground
Silken webs of those once bound
And still no one believes

Monsters come, quake with fear
Pray for dawn, death is here
