

Lean Mean Leather Machine

Ignitor

Night falls across the desert
A rattlesnake slithers by
With eyes slit I watch the moonrise
Anticipating who'll e mine...
Tonight

Hawk eyes, sunrise
I'm coming for you in the night
For now, you're safe
So stay at home, you'll be all right

You wanted more - well, lock your door
I'm coming for you!

Long and lean, deadly mean
Is this heaven or is it hell?
Red lips, on your throat
If you're dying, you can't tell

What you wanted, now you got it
Lean mean leather machine
I'll take you down
Lean mean leather machine

First a kiss and then a sigh
I'll take your breath and then you'll die
Like a cat, so soft and sweet
You'll fell my purr against your cheek

As my claws cut down your back,
You'll cry out like you're on the rack
One desire was to play
You're just a poor boy I led astray

What you wanted, now you got it
Lean mean leather machine
I'll take you down
