

Leather Forever

Ignitor

Ten hut, back to the front
It's time to seize the night
Get out your leather made in sin
You've got to strap it on skin tight
It's time for all the devil's children
To heed the call of war
We fight this battle everyday
We'll fight for evermore

It's a choice, it's a need
Hear my voice, know my creed
Feel the power
This is our zero hour

We're bound together leather forever

Wake up, eyes to the front
It's time to bring the pain
The opposition's breaking loose
They need to be restrained
It's time for all the devils children
To stand and draw the line
And let the liars know we'll fight
Until the end of time

It's a choice, it's a need
Hear my voice, know my greed
Feel the power
This is zero hour

We're bound together leather forever

They'll try to change you
Try to break you
Their lies will drive you mad
But you've got one thing
You know they'll never have
Your leather clad

There are those that speak an awful lot
With no wisdom in their words
There are those that prove that life is cheap
And should be culled from the herd
There are those that say they've got your back
But only in fair weather
There are those marching in your boots
And those boots are made of leather

It's a choice, it's a need
Hear my voice, know my creed
Feel the power
This is zero hour

We're bound together, leather forever
