

Painfully Beautiful

Il Volo

Every morning, watch you walking
Sunlight on your skin
Stand there staring, my hand shaking
My heart caving in
You walk by on the street
Take my breath from me
You're out of my reach
You'll all that I see

Painfully beautiful, so beautiful
It breaks my heart
Shamefully beautiful
And I, I can't look away
It makes my heart ache
You're painfully beautiful

In the evening, I'm there waiting
For one look at you
See your shadow in the window
You come into view
I can't think, I can't speak
Steal my heart from me
You're out of my league
I fall at your feet

Painfully beautiful, so beautiful
It breaks my heart
Shamefully beautiful
And I, I can't look away
It makes my heart ache
You're painfully beautiful

I, I would die for one kiss
But you don't even know, I exist
You're out of my reach
You're all that I see

Painfully beautiful, so beautiful
It breaks my heart
Shamefully beautiful
And I, I can't look away
It makes my heart ache
You're painfully beautiful
You're painfully beautiful
You're painfully beautiful
