Goodnight and Go

Imogen Heap

Say goodnight and go. Woah woah. Woah woah

Skipping beats, blushing cheeks I am struggling Daydreaming, bed scenes in the corner café And then i'm left in bits recovering tectonic tremblings You get me every time

Why d'ya have to be so cute? It's impossible to ignore you Must you make me laugh so much It's bad enough we get along so well Say goodnight and go

Follow you home, you've got your headphones on and you're danci ng Got lucky, beautiful shot you taking everything off watch the c urtains wide open Then you fall in the same routine flicking through the TV relax ed and reclining And you think you're alone...

Why d'ya have to be so cute? It's impossible to ignore you Must you make me laugh so much It's bad enough we get along so well Say goodnight and go

One of these days, you'll miss your train and come stay with me We'll have drinks and talk about things, any excuse to stay awa ke with you You'll sleep here, i'll sleep there, but then the heating may b e down again at my convenience we'd be good, we'd be great together.

Go!

Say goodnight and go, why's it always always goodnight and go Darling not again Goodnight and go
