

Wake Up Sally

Impellitteri

Wake up Sally have you heard the news,
I've got a brand new band,
I'm gonna kick the blues, now baby, just hold on to my hand
Get up now, I've got some work to do,
I see my guiding light,
It's gonna see me through, now baby,
I'm sticking to my guns

Now don't you tell me what to say, don't you tell me what to do,
Till you're looking through my eyes and you walk inside my shoes
What it is, what it ain't, tell me who are you to say, I just look beyond your world and I see a brighter day

You say I'm living inside a dream
I'm just a stranger to the scene
You think I'm just a punk on the streets
But I'm the future's way

Now I've been up and baby I've been down, I've been looking all around,
But momma, I ain't now painted clown I've got my way, and I know you've got yours, don't try to keep pushing me Through your doors, cause momma,
I've got a mind of my own

Now I'm living this life, changing the world and making it mine
This rebellious child is walking the edge cause life ain't no crime
