

The Great Divine

Impending Doom

Man, crippled and broken
Crawling to an illusion
Beautifully crafted by Satan
An existence with no salvation

The Great Divine
Why is the world plagued with death
Bringer of light
When will we find peace in eternal rest

Born in the image of the lamb
Enslaved by the unholy flag

We are damned
By cancers spreading everywhere
We are damned
By hatred that man cannot bare

Why are we here
Why are we dying to know
Why a life of suffering
Could not become a life of gold

Why are we here
Why are we dying to know
Why a life of suffering
Could not become a life of gold

Man, crippled and broken
Crawling to an illusion
An existence with no salvation
