

I'm the Highway

In Flames

I am my deepest shadow
Something I can't ever neglect
Rise above these ashes
Will fall them fade away

In dark moments I know better
Within destruction I see clearly

From here to new grounds
Suppose I will do it alone
Will fight through that design
Feel this of your conviction

Well, staring into truth
I am, thy way
Existence careful made
In all your everlasting well, complications

In dark moments well, I know better
Within destruction I see clearly

From here to new grounds
Suppose I will do it alone
Will fight through that design
Will feel this of your conviction

Forget the promised land
There was never an invitation
Today I create my own
Before there was sorrow and lack of attention

From here to new grounds
Suppose I will do it alone
Will fight through that design
Feel this of your conviction
