

Actions Fall Short

In My Eyes

I hear the threats and the criticisms but it's nothing to fear
They can take their shots but it won't cause me to break
Time will prove who's committed and who's a fake
My concern, keeps me alive
Sometimes words aren't enough
Sometimes actions fall short
Perseverance
Sets us apart
I can see your goal is to alienate me
But someone so much worse can't get my best
I guess you'll never put that negativity to rest
These words, they are my strength
Sometimes words aren't enough
Sometimes actions fall short
Perseverance
Sets us apart
Failure hurts but doesn't mean you tried any less
My will to try, my conviction
Won't settle for second fucking best
Perseverance
Sets us apart
