

Still Yearning

In The Woods...

Arise from our slumber
To greet the new dawn
Far we have wandered
Our journey carries on
New ventures await
Flowing softly in the new wind
From here I can see the stars
Waiting for new dimensions
Full of passion, my new soul
Takes me further beyond this night
I promise to keep you in my heart
Know I am gone but shall return anew
Keep growing stronger every day
Embrace the new, meet me halfway
Still learning, still yearning
I promise to keep you in my heart
Know I am gone but shall return anew
