

Substance Vortex

In The Woods...

The shell that you've become
3rd eye dilated
Your world's become one. You.
Down dark corridors
To the basement of your soul
Hide there in silence
Addiction consumes
No one else in there
Only yourself can break you free
Can't be my brother's keeper
These walls are your own
Just one more fix
And everything's fine
Addiction, your only friend
And he's here to stay
Take a walk outside your substance vortex
Outside, the world turning
As you wither deep inside
Caught in a cycle, self inflicted
You're in there somewhere
The shell you've become
3rd eye dilated
Your world's become one
Take a walk outside your substance vortex
Outside, the world turning
As you wither deep inside
Caught in a cycle, self inflicted
You're in there somewhere
The shell you've become
3rd eye dilated
Your world's become one. You.
