

Wild And Peaceful

Incognito

There is no greater feeling to unfold
Guided by the inspiration love is bold
It is the fire burning in your soul
It is the story waiting to be told
Wild and peaceful
Rare and free
Wild and peaceful
Rare and free

You came and took away my emptiness
Put in its place a gift of tenderness

Wherever your river will flow
You know my love will follow
Wherever your river will flow
You know my love will follow
Through the jungles of your mind

You are the treasure waiting to be found
You are the wings that take me heaven bound
Wild and peaceful
So rare and free
