

Goodbye

Infected Rain

Just go!

All this is ok
It will soon go away!

I'm so hungry but, the food makes me nauseous
Feeling sick when I'm looking in the mirror
Desperate to find the reason of my failure
Still hoping and begging for forever

Driving away, I'm screaming out loud!
I'm letting it go, letting it out!
Beneath this hard shell of denial
There is a fragile needy child

You crossed your heart and hoped to die
You pinky swore to tell no lies
Nothing left, no footprints no bread crumbs
Only the tragic sound of the drums!

I guess every love story is a tragedy
If you wait long enough
I guess red becomes burgundy
If mixed with wrath

Driving away, I'm screaming out loud!
I'm letting it go, letting it out!
Beneath this hard shell of denial
There is a fragile needy child

I'm letting you go
Good bye my friend!
