

Ethereality Section

Ingrowing

intersecting virtual lines in looking glass polyedre stealing a part of you ethereality section of your mind connecting senses in infinity of malevolence richly i feed grim recitals conduct the section edge there's no place for biblical parable celestial pervesity celebrates its triumph all mantras of world are completely useless i carve and outline the enigmatic sigills to plane of your ethereality section desperate cry in celestial sphere translucid through mirror polyedre sounds like innuendo of ethereality section ethereality section...
of polyangular dreams...
ethereality sections... of cyberspace...
floating through me...
