

Hyperspace Souls

Ingrowing

imprisoned in the time warp lost among worlds far away we are like derelict vessel scattered to nebular nothingness
hyperspace souls
you meet them everyday
no despair...
some day you'll join them
yes you will...
hyperspace souls
light like inverse sun
don't hesitate...
and try
the bitter taste of their being so try...
hyperspace souls
blind light of perpetual trouble darkly shines on our keopaa 0.29 we can see the dreadful mission objectives
there's no return,
there's no escape
