

Here I am looking for clue
Existence? Or just my false truth?
There is no reason for strange mental doubts
My safezone keeps away all fault
Concealed position, here in my lands
Undetected but with protective defence
I am growing so perfectly in the peace
Thinking of my organs, like unborn jigsaw quiz,
My safezone, maternity fields
So precisely undisclosed
Well secured in another time
So internally hibernated
So gorgeously aroused in life
Here I am looking for clue
Existence? Or just my false truth?
There is no reason for strange mental doubts
This safezone keeps away all faults
My safezone, maternity fields
So precisely undisclosed
Well secured in another time
So internally hibernated
So gorgeously aroused in life
Focused in one point
I am to be the One on the throne
Trying to move joint by joint
Silent speech with my virtual mom
I am growing so perfectly in that place
Thinking of my own limbs, like unborn in open space.
My safezone, maternity fields
So precisely undisclosed
Well secured in another time
So internally hibernated
So gorgeously aroused in life
