

Chasing After You

Inhabited

I'm hungry oh I'm thirsty for more
To be in your presence
Oh that's what I long for
You know you captured my heart again
You captured me
And You know you captured my heart again

I'm floored by your majesty
You're the one that I adore
You're the one living for
And I'm falling more in love with you
And I'm falling more in love with you
Oh my Lord

I bow and I fall Lord at your feet again Jesus
I worship I adore you
Your beautiful to me

I'm hungry oh I'm thirsty for more
To be in your presence
Oh that's what I long for
You know you captured my heart again
And You know you captured my heart again

I'm chasing after you
I'm chasing after you

I'm floored by your majesty
You're the one that I adore
You're the one living for
And I'm falling more in love with you
And I'm falling more in love with you
Oh my Lord

I bow and I fall Lord at your feet again Jesus
I worship I adore you
Your beautiful to me

Your faithful and your holy
Of your grace I am undeserving
You breath your life into me
Your love it amazes me

I bow and I fall Lord at your feet again Jesus
I worship I adore you
Your beautiful to me

I bow and I fall Lord at your feet again Jesus
I worship I adore you
Your beautiful to me

I'm falling at your feet I can not speak
Your beautiful to me

I'm falling at your feet I can not speak
Your beautiful to me
