

Inner Fear

Inner Fear

My ability to clarify your hidden world
Never lets you feel addicted to the brave
Just another isolated psychic wisdom falls
Digging slowly perfect shelter for your grave

I am the perfectness of lies
Incarnated hell, rotting paradise

Drawing out attention from your ego-soul
Lighting up the promises of mine
Breathing desperation, frightening deception
Leaving all your fantasies behind

I'm all that scares the world
Adoption that brings anemia to Earth

I am the paradox of life
Incarnated hell, rotting paradise

Never find me hiding out away of grip
Inspiration for your shattered falling grace
Like the nightmare killing slowly your domain of sleep
Terrified emotions - make up for your face

Are you able to expose your inner fear?

Live for me, why don't you see?
My presence's so despised
Always feel that rush of me
I'll crush your heart, being hypnotized
