

We've lost confidence and cannot see the barriers
Denying knowledge of light and death
That question "WHY?!" saves our life from deep euphoria
Generation with a bullet in its head

We burn our dreaming in hell

And emptiness's betraying me as well
Deaf-muteness of the sanctity
The rebellious no longer yell
They hear the secrets of mortality

That question "HOW?!" saves our life from euphoria
Generation with a tumor in its head

We stab our dreaming, we dwell

And emptiness's dividing me as well
Deaf - muteness of the sanctity
The rebellious no longer yell
They know the secrets of mortality

Could everyone stop witnessing despair?!

We are exceptionally perfect, useless
Trying to inhale what is obscene

Refuse me thousand times
But, where's your truth?

Out of mind
Preaching model
In my sights
One step closer
Paradise

Out of mind
Preaching model
In my sights
Secret's holder
Paradise

False prophecies - foreseen and crumbled
You will see in all of the ugliest beliefs

So, emptiness's betraying me again
Deaf - muteness of the sanctity
The rebellious no longer yell
They tell the secrets of mortality

Could everyone stop witnessing despair?!

We are exceptionally perfect, useless
Trying to inhale what is obscene

Refuse me thousand times
But where's your truth?
