

Remember

Innocens

Remember

What a wonderful May the moon's introducing a new star
as he does every night
gives a hope and sage resolution
takes your thoughts faraway for those we don't speak of or just remember

Wonder is the deep depth
It's the charm of mirage Danger is the white lie
It's the highway to another horror Warm smile is the reason It's the halfway to another life-line

And as stay of my faith I'm loosing my mind, my name all forgotten in vain
Even all the friends I had as a child
Now you got me insane Lost and broken at midnight's frozen land

The more I get the more I pain Remember this and take me away
When all's gone and nothing remains

What a wonderful May
as he does every night
or just remember
