

Burn It Down

Integrity

time has run out I'm in hell - let me burn your blood - the mirror everything - seems clearer your lies over ride everything i can't believe a word you say this is the last time i trust you and i it's the last thing i ever do I'm gonna make sure you never forget this
you always regret this look in my fucking eyes and tell me to believe don't you ever try and pull that shit on me grown cold my heart is black there's no turning back
