

Talking to my self again

How the hell did you get so fucking far in your life?
You're a sucky ass liar, always blaming and blaming
It's always everybody else's fault
You're never wrong, you're a god

Hey, hey, who the hell let you in?
I don't know you, I don't owe you nothing
Shame, shame, who do you think you are?
Get your fat fingers out of my cookie jar

How did you persuade me to sign away my life?
For the benefit of your own little piggy bank
Calling and calling, will it ever fucking end?
This story sucks, fuck

Hey, hey, who the hell let you in?
I don't know you, I don't owe you nothing
Shame, shame, why are you still around?
Are you walking us into the fucking ground?

Hey, hey, who the hell let you in?
I don't know you, I don't owe you nothing
Shame, shame, who do you think you are?
Get your fat fingers out of my cookie jar

Hey, hey, who the hell let you in?
I don't know you, I don't owe you nothing
Shame, shame, why are you still around?
Are you walking us into the fucking ground?

Hey, hey, who the hell let you in?
I don't know you, I don't owe you nothing
Shame, shame, who do you think you are?
Get your fat fingers out of my cookie jar
