

Sight Unseen

Iris

Yet sight unseen
Still oh so clear
And so I fiend
There is nothing in between
All I want's always been clear

Can you describe
The things I can't see
The way it all should be
The vivid life I'm vowed to chasing
Sight unseen

Yet sight unseen
Screams in my ear
It's now my creed
To believe need not be seen
It would only interfere

Can you describe
The things I can't see
The way it all should be
The vivid life I'm vowed to chasing
Sight unseen

Can you describe
The things I can't see
The way it all should be
The vivid life I'm vowed to chasing
