

You will now prophesize
I will now meditate
The future electrifies
Shaking in some other state

We look ahead in time as a wayseer
The future is a lens where things appear clear

Speak in tongues, answer
What is our destiny
Testify, fainting
Peer into the never seen

We look ahead in time as a wayseer
The future is a lens where things appear clear

And I wonder
Is the future right?
Am I stronger in the other life
Undeceiver, am I edified?
True believer, I

We look ahead in time as a wayseer
The future is a lens where things appear clear
