

Soul Experience

Iron Butterfly

Be yourself and live a little,
don't bother painting your face;
Tomorrow it may rain and colors run,
better it quench the flowers thirst.

Don't be afraid to live a little,
don't be afraid of the people that belittle our love,
oh our love.

Open up your thoughts and listen to others,
your fellow man may surprise you;
He offers a unique item,
Soul experience, help yourselves to each other.

Don't be afraid to live a little,
don't be afraid of the people that belittle our love,
oh our love.

Just be yourself.

Just be yourself.

Oh our love, oh our love.
