

Among the Dead

Iron Fire

Surrounded in the dead of night
When your heart is pounding
And you pray for the morning light
One down endless to go
On this road where ashes fall like snow
Head down, no sound
Around the corner the corpses are rising
Up high, down low
For the survival there will be no compromising

Another grave, another tombstone
Crushed without a name
The lost society where there is

Crawl among the dead
When the madness comes for us all
Who will be leaving
Among the dead
When the chaos ruling the earth
Who will be kneeling
When we crawl among the dead

Crawl

Walking the streets of the undead
It's a ghost empire where ground is bloody red
Smell the reek of rotten flesh
It's too late for guilty to confess
High hope for quick death
When the time's up please take me out
The rope swings low
There will be no justice when you're lost in the crowd

Another grave, another tombstone
Crushed without a name
The lost society where there is

Crawl among the dead
When the madness comes for us all
Who will be leaving
Among the dead
When the chaos ruling the earth
Who will be kneeling
When we crawl among the dead

Darkness to the grave
No one to save

Another grave, another tombstone
Crushed without a name
The lost society where there is

Crawl among the dead

Who will be leaving
Among the dead
When the chaos ruling the earth
Who will be kneeling
When we crawl among the dead

Crawl among the dead
When the darkness is all that is left
Who will be standing
Among the dead
When only sadness is all that remain
Who is commanding
Crawl among the dead
