

One More Bullet

Iron Fire

Taste the dust in the wind
The smell of blood from within
The kiss of death,, a sting from the beast
A call from beyond
Adrenaline feast - one more
It's like a drug pumping in your veins
It's like a shot straight to the brain
When the spark ignites the air
You know there's not a second to spare

Riding the unforgiven road again
Again and again
A never ending story until the end

We take one more bullet in the chamber
Another line to remember
There is gun smoke in the air tonight
Are you ready to take another bite
Up from the crypt we come alive
With a Colt 45, take one more bullet

One more bullet

Pounding in the rust
Shining in chrome
Burning the night, we are coming home
There is no escape, blind in the haze
Running in the dark

Until the end of days - one more
Where there is hope there is always a way
Feeding the dream with a price to pay
Seeking justice when we storm the gate
Get in the ring, the final crusade

Riding the unforgiven road again
Again and again
A never ending story until the end

We take one more bullet in the chamber
Another line to remember
There is gun smoke in the air tonight
Are you ready to take another bite
Up from the crypt we come alive
With a Colt 45, take one more bullet

We take one more bullet in the chamber
Another line to remember
There is gun smoke in the air tonight
Are you ready to take another bite
Up from the crypt we come alive
With a Colt 45, with a Colt 45
Another bullet
One more bullet
