

Riding Free

Iron Fire

Flying free as the wind
Like an eagle in the sky
No rules will ever hold me down
(Down, down)

My soul will never fall
Destiny wont you hear my call
The chosen one, who is born to wear the crown
(Crown, crown)

Riding fast through the night
I am the keeper of eternal light
Holy blood is in my veins
Independence I will gain

Cause I will ride over the rainbow
Into the promised land
Ride through the fire
In search for victory
I will ride across the rivers
Which flow with holy blood
Ride and never surrender
I am riding free with the wind

Free will take its toll
And I will conquer all
Facing evil to cease all slavery

Fighting all the demons which infiltrate the world
Breaking the chains of pain and tyranny

Riding fast through the night
I am the keeper of eternal light
Holy blood is in my veins
Independence I will gain

Cause I will ride over the rainbow
Into the promised land
Ride through the fire
In search for victory
I will ride across the rivers
Which flow with holy blood
Ride and never surrender
I am riding free with the wind

Riding fast through the night
I am the keeper of eternal light
Holy blood is in my veins
Independence I will gain

Cause I will ride over the rainbow
Into the promised land
Ride through the fire
In search for victory

Ride and never surrender
I am riding free with the wind
