

The Devil's Path

Iron Fire

In the corner of your mind
The truth will follow even the blind
In the shadow of your doubt
Darkness comes alive
Calling of the crowd
It's time to accept
The fire inside you are the king of the crypt
You are the bringer of light
Leader of the lost, servant of the night

Falling deeper, follow the reaper

Six Six Six
Walking the devil's path
Bringing the aftermath
Six Six Six
Souls of eternal bloodbath
Unite in wrath on the devil's path

In the eye of the storm
The gathering will soon take form
It's running in your veins
The force of night, messiah of pain

The time is running out
You gotta make a stand and make it loud
You are the chosen son
The angel of dust, the war has begun

Rising higher, follow the fire

Six Six Six
Walking the devil's path
Bringing the aftermath
Six Six Six
Souls of eternal bloodbath
Unite in wrath on the devil's path

Six Six Six
Walking the devil's path
Bringing the aftermath
Six Six Six
Souls of eternal bloodbath
Unite in wrath on the devil's path
Bringing the aftermath
Living in the corner of your mind
Six Six Six
Unite in wrath on the devil's path
