Another door is there, another way
To find the destiny of my life
You've got to understand
That life is just a hard reality
We pay the price.
Let me dream of a brave new world
Let me dream of a heart without fear
I don't wanna be prisoner
I will break this masquerade of life
Now, I can feel free.

Hold the light, dance into the fire Hold the light we will fly much higher Hold the light, dance into the fire Hold the light we will fly much higher

Another chance to win, believe in yourself
Just try to stay alive and you'll be so proud
You've got to find the key
And try to realize that the other side
Will be so nice.
Let us dream of a brave new world

Let us dream of a brave new world

Let us dream of a heart without fear

We don't wanna be prisoners

We will break this masquerade of life

Now we can feel free.

Hold the light, dance into the fire Hold the light we will fly much higher

We will break this masquerade of life Now we can feel free.

Hold the light, dance into the fire Hold the light we will fly much higher
