Branded

Branded

I'm branded, the whole world can see
My heart and soul belongs to you
It's like it's branded, oh and all our love
You're the only girl I see
You're the only one for me

I'm in a situation
I wouldn't change for the world
Beautify my imagination
That there exists such a girl
I swore I'd never fall again
It wasn't healthy for me
But you changed my whole direction
Now I'm your property

I'm branded, you put your mark on me
I'm not ashamed to say I'm yours
Looks like they planned it that you're my destiny
Each day I love you more and more

Everybody needs somebody, it feels so good to belong
To someone who makes you know, that their heart is your own
And you never, never
You never, never, never
Never have to be alone, never alone
Never alone

Hear that your mojo that you're working
Our love portion [?]
Your stuff is serious 'cause I'm delirious
I'm strong and that's no lie

I'm branded, the whole world can see
My heart and soul belongs to you
It's like it's branded, oh and all our love
You're the only girl I see
You're the only one for me

You are the perfect lover
Nobody doesn't matter but you
When you touch me, I melt like butter
It might sound funny, but I promise you it's true

I'm branded, you put your mark on me
I'm not ashamed to say I'm yours
Looks like they planned it that you're my destiny
Each day I love you more and more

I'm branded, the whole world can see
My heart and soul belongs to you
It's like it's branded, oh and all our love
You're the only girl I see
You're the only one for me

I'm branded, you put your mark on me
I'm not ashamed to say I'm yours
Looks like they planned it that you're my destiny
Each day I love you more and more

Everybody needs somebody, it feels so good to belong
To someone who makes you know, that their heart is your own
And you never, never
You never, never, never
Never have to be alone, never alone
Never alone

I'm branded, the whole world can see
My heart and soul belongs to you
It's like it's branded, oh and all our love
You're the only girl I see
You're the only one for me

I'm branded, you put your mark on me
I'm not ashamed to say I'm yours
Looks like they planned it that you're my destiny
Each day I love you more and more
