

The Mistletoe and Me

Isaac Hayes

This time of the year,
which we call Christmas.
people full of cheer,
oh and kids are wishful.
But most of all,
to make it complete
there's you
the mistletoe and me.
Look at the flames in the fireplace, embrace each other.
and mother nature's clad in white (ooh) wants to sing for her lovers (yea).
And through the house
all is serene
just you
the mistletoe and me
Listening to the sounds that comes with yuletide as they flow from near and far.
Looking in your eyes,
cause they're bright and shining
with the glow
of a distance star.
Fate is santa claus
and cupid's his helper I'm so grateful because (ooh) they brought us together And together we are and we will always be
just you
the mistletoe and me.
Oh you Moe
I said you
oh you
mistletoe and me.
