

It's fiction
Raise your arms, benediction
Just an observation
I can overhear the conversation

It's slow and it's gradual
It's so unimaginable
But who cares?

It's fiction
Oh, and I'm in need for There's no harm

This is the perfect situation
For your righteous indignation
Got the attention of the congregation
So come on

It's fiction
Oh, it's fiction
Oh, it's fiction
Oh, it's fiction
Oh

It's slow and it's gradual
It's so unimaginable
But you should care

You know the center of the universe is here
It's not there
