

T.T. Hurricane

Itchy Poopzkid

My life looks like a hurricane
The storm in me it is to blame
Calm is the enemy
Tailwind is what I need
Devastation is all that remains

While you ask what I mean
I go insane

This drink is my only delight
This bottle's helping me to write
This one is meant for me
This wall is all I see tonight

I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
To burn down my dismay
And carry me away
I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
Disillusion causes pain
And I cannot take the strain

This town is full of ignorance
This road has a bad influence
This house it knows my voice
This room is full of noise today

I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
To burn down my dismay
And carry me away
I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
Disillusion causes pain
And I cannot take the strain

What is wrong with the ones
Who belong to the ones
That are never satisfied
And that never get it right
I am one of the ones
Who belong to these ones
And I never get it right
Have I just lost the fight?

I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
To burn down my dismay
And carry me away
I'll search forever
Where is the light?

Where is the light?
Disillusion causes pain
And I cannot take the strain

I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
To burn down my dismay
And carry me away
I'll search forever
Where is the light?
Where is the light?
Disillusion causes pain
And I cannot take the strain
