

Just Play This

J Rice

You are the ending and the start
And all the most beautiful parts
Sometimes it's hard to tell apart
You from the brightest shining star

You glow, you glow, you glow, you glow

And if he breaks your heart
Or she hurts your soul
If you fall so hard
That it leaves a hole

And if you can't fall asleep tonight
And you keep tossing on your sides
You can't turn off that pretty mind
You just can't leave that pain behind

(Just play this)
That pain behind
(Just play this)
I'll turn my heart into a magnet
(Just play this)
So you won't feel the pain that happened
(Just play this)

Every particle
And every single atom
The ones that hurt
I'll just attract them

And I'll erase it from your mind
With this sonic lullaby
You won't ever have to cry

For longer than a little while (just play this)
For longer than a little while (just play this)
A little while (just play this)
Oh, just a little while (just play this)
A little while (just play)

And I'll erase it from your mind
With this sonic lullaby
You won't ever have to cry
You are the ending and the start
And all the most beautiful parts
Sometimes it's hard to tell apart
You from the brightest shining star

(Just play this)
A shining star
(Just play this)
The brightest one
In the evening sky
(Just play this)
Every time you look at it you cry...
