

Everyday

Jackie Boyz

Yeah, ohohohoh, ohohohoh, oh.

First day seemed so far, but we never fell apart, just at the first day that we met, it keeps playing in my head, ohoh.

Baby come on with me, girl you're something I see, it keeps getting better and better, want this feeling forever, yeah.

And everyday that I wake up,
I'm thinking 'bout I found your love, because, oh.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh,
everyday.

No it's never been easy, but baby girl you complete me, and you never will leave me, no matter how hard the rain.

So baby girl don't you worry, I'll be there in a hurry, when it's dark in this world, I will always be there, baby.

And everyday that I wake up, I'm thinking 'bout I found your love (your love, your love, your love), beca use (because), oh.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh,
everyday.

Seeing your face,
is like the first time,
is like the first time,
won't be the last time.

When we fell in love,
it's like the first time,
it's like the first time,
and girl you're all mine, ahah.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh.

Everyday, everyday,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you,
feels like the first time I fell in love with you, ohoh,
everyday.

Everyday,
the first time,
everyday,
it's like the first time,
everyday,
