

What I Know

Jackie Greene

Some time ago it occurred to me that the only thing that you get for free is the smile on her face, when your foot goes through the door

Cause what it is ain't what it seems like the promises from magazines and you say your plate is empty but you never ask for more

What I know
I know, just can't save me now

But bless me father, cause' I'm the One I got no sword, I got no gun but when the day is said and done I believe i'll still be here

And just because my eyes are down don't mean that i can't look around watch them smiles turn to frowns, the laughs that turn to tears

What I know
I know, just can't save me now

Some folks like to have it all I see it in my crystal ball and some folks are just bound to fall and others born to lose

So you can build your mansion you can build your throne but the more you have, the less you own and soon your time is come and gone and then you'll have to choose

What i know
I know, just can't save me now

Electronic men who supervise and the cell talk and the super-size has taken me by surprise and i'm weary to the bone

And sometimes all i seem to see is the Jukebox of Hypocrisy Be not what you claim to be, but you claim to be your own

What I know
I know, just can't save me now

You cannot advertise to me
I know you're lying, can't you see Now, if you'll kindly exit my TV I'll show you to the door
